

Work Orders

Work orders are the operational core of Sytewise. They are the records that connect properties, vendors, and the documented history of every job across your portfolio. This chapter covers the full work order workflow: building and managing work orders from the property page, the vendor portal experience where vendors document their work and submit completion, how checklists attach to and travel with work orders through the job lifecycle, and how the Reminders module turns individual work orders into a proactive annual maintenance calendar.